What does OCR Say?

The US Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, (“OCR”) is responsible for enforcing Title IX.

OCR takes a broader view of an institution’s responsibility to respond to sexual harassment against students and to remedy gender discrimination, sexual harassment and sexual assault.

OCR guidelines state:

The college is responsible if it knew or reasonably should have known of the harassment and failed to promptly take reasonable steps to end the harassment and prevent recurrence.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

- Title IX (1972): Federal law that prohibits sex discrimination in educational institutions.
- The Jeanne Clery Act (1998): Required colleges and universities in the United States to disclose information regarding crime on and around campus.
- Dear Colleague Letter (2011): Provides Office of Civil Rights guidance regarding concerns that arise in sexual violence cases.

- VAWA (2013): The Violence Against Women Act, aimed at improving how colleges address sexual violence; imposes obligations to revise policies and practices.
- SAVE Act (2014): Part of VAWA amendments, made changes to the Jeanne Clery Act; requires colleges to report additional sexually violent crimes.

STEWART SCHOOL'S COMMITMENT

- Prohibit sexual harassment and sexual violence of any kind.
- We are committed to promoting a safe and secure academic environment for all members of our School.
- All students, faculty, staff, and visitors are expected to maintain a working and learning environment free from harassment and discrimination.
- Sexual harassment , a form of sex discrimination, is illegal under federal, and state laws and will not be tolerate.

SCOPE OF COVERAGE

Title IX protects ALL students from sexual harassment:

- Female and Male students.
- Lesbian, Gay, Bi-Sexual, Transgender, and Queer (LGBTQ) students.
- Students WITH and WITHOUT disabilities.
- Students of Different Races and National Origins, including International students.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that is sufficiently serious to adversely affect your ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program. It includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

TYPES OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- Gender-based Harassment
- Sexual Violence
- Domestic/Intimate Partner/ Dating Violence
- Stalking

SEXUAL VIOLENCE

- Physical sexual acts engaged in without the consent of the other person or when the other person is unable to consent to the activity. Sexual Violence includes sexual assault, rape, battery, and sexual coercion; domestic violence; dating violence; and stalking.

DOMESTIC/INTIMATE PARTNER/DATING VIOLENCE

- Domestic Violence is force or threat that results in injury (physically and/or psychologically);
- The act is committed by a person such as a family member, spouse, or household member;
- It can include a current or former spouse;
- It can include a person which the victim is cohabitating or has cohabitated;
- It can include someone that you are dating or had been dating.

STALKING

- Stalking occurs when someone, on more than one occasion, engages in conduct directed at another person with the intent to place, or knows or reasonably should know that the conduct places that person in reasonable fear of death, assault, or bodily injury to that person.

STALKING

THE ROLE OF ALCOHOL AND DRUGS IN SEXUAL VIOLENCE

- The use of alcohol under the age of 21 is against the law in most states.
- Alcohol and drug use can cloud your judgement and cause you to make decisions you would not make if you were sober.
- The use of alcohol and/or drugs can effect your ability to fend off unwelcome sexual misconduct and may not allow you to give consent.
- Being intoxicated does not give someone permission to do something without your consent.

BYSTANDER INTERVENTION

Bystander Intervention is developing the awareness, skills, and courage needed to intervene in a situation when another individual needs help. Bystander intervention allows individuals to send a powerful message about what is and is not acceptable behavior in our campus community.

THE THREE “D’S” TO BYSTANDER INTERVENTION

Direct – Directly intervening, in the moment, to prevent a problem situation from happening.

Delegate – Seek help from another individual such as police or campus official.

Distract – Interrupting the situation without directly confronting the offender.

CONSENT

- Consent is informed, voluntary and revocable. Consent is an affirmative, unambiguous, and conscious decision by each participant to engage in mutually agreed-upon sexual activity. It must be given without coercion, force, threats or intimidation. Consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual encounter and can be revoked at any time. Once consent is withdrawn, the sexual activity must stop immediately.

TITLE IX REPORTING

TITLE IX at STEWART SCHOOL

- Information about the alleged offense should be reported to the IX Coordinator as soon as possible. Time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation.
- It is strongly advocated that a victim of sexual violence report the incident to police in a timely manner.
- A prompt and equitable resolution through a reliable and impartial investigation of complaints, including the opportunity for both parties to present witnesses or other evidence.

STEWART SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITIES

When an individual makes a complaint or when any Employee of the college learns of possible sexual misconduct, the college must immediately:

- INVESTIGATE,
- Take appropriate steps to end the misconduct,
- Eliminate the effects of the misconduct and,
- Prevent the harassment from recurring and.
- Faculty and staff who receive complaints of sexual harassment or sexual violence are OBLIGATED to report complaints to the Title IX Coordinator.

TITLE IX REPORTING

Victims of sexual misconduct should be aware that Stewart School must issue timely warnings for incidents reported to them that pose a substantial threat of bodily harm or danger to other members of the campus community. The School will make every effort to ensure that a victim's name and other identifying information is not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the danger. The School reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any health or safety risk, or a change in student status.

TITLE IX REPORTING

The purpose of reporting is to:

- Prevent further incidents from occurring,
- Promptly address reported issues, and
- Limit the effects of harassment on the educational environment.

SANCTIONS & PROTECTIVE MEASURES

Sanctions that may be imposed by Stewart School include, but are not limited to:

- Written warning;
- Mandatory counseling;
- Mandatory education and training;
- Changes in academic or working arrangements;
- Revocation of certain campus privileges;
- Suspension; or
- Expulsion.

The school has flexibility in the type and range of sanctions to impose on the perpetrator depending on the severity of the incident. Stewart School has a process in place to ensure that sanctions imposed are consistent with sanctions imposed in past incidents of similar conduct and are not imposed unequally based on gender or gender identity.

SANCTIONS & PROTECTIVE MEASURES

Protective measures that the school may utilize to protect the complainant included, but are not limited to:

- Changes to academic situations;
- Ensuring the complainant and perpetrator do not share classes or clinic together;
- Arranging for the complainant to restart with a different class with no academic or financial penalty.

When determining what protective measures to establish, Stewart School will consider a number of factors including the specific needs and requests expressed by the complainant; the severity or pervasiveness of the conduct; any continuing effects on the complainant; whether the complainant and alleged perpetrator share the same class or clinical times.

CONFIDENTIALITY

- All employees of Stewart School have a duty to report any incident of sexual harassment to the Title IX Coordinator.
- However, the employee will limit their report to only those individuals with a 'need to know.'
- If you request that your identity remain confidential, the Title IX Coordinator will try to honor that request if possible. Remember that this may limit the effectiveness of the investigation.

RETALIATION

Under Title IX, it is unlawful to retaliate against an individual who has:

- Made a complaint of sexual harassment.
- Participated in the investigation of such a complaint (i.e. testifying as a witness, providing proof, etc.); or
- Opposed conduct that is reasonably believed to violate Title IX.

 - The existence of the relationship is determined based upon the 1) length of the relationship; 2) type of relationships; and 3) frequency of interaction between the persons in the relationship.

Clery Act Reportable Crimes

- “Domestic Violence” refers to a violent crime, committed by:
 - Current or former spouse or intimate partner; or
 - Person sharing a child with the victim; or
 - Person living with or who has lived with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner.

Clery Act Reportable Crimes

- “Stalking” refers to a course of conduct (two or more acts) by which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates with a person or interferes with his or her property; and
- Is directed at a specific person; and
- Causes a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or causes that person to suffer substantial emotional distress

Clery Reporting Locations

- On Campus;
- Public areas immediately adjacent to campus;
- Campus-owned buildings and property;
- College-sponsored activities, events and/or trips on non-campus property.

How to File a Clery Report

- Contact your CSA:
 - Angela Taylor;
angele.taylor@stewartschool.com
 - Danielle Bouwman;
academicdirector@stewartschool.com
 - Ashley Schlieman;
dowhatyoulove@stewartschool.com

No personally identifiable information needs to be shared by the reporter to satisfy Clery reporting requirements.

Other Clery Act Provisions

- Designate a college official to train CSAs on their obligations under the Clery Act.
- Publish an Annual Security Report disclosing security policies and selected crime statistics for previous 3 years ~ must be made available to all current students and employees, as well as all prospective students and employees.
- Timely Warnings: to the campus community about crimes that pose an ongoing threat to students and employees.
- Public Crime Logs.
- Sexual assault victims are assured basic rights.
- Failure to comply may result in substantial fine and/or loss of eligibility to participate in federal student aid programs.

Sexual Offense Reporting Requirements

- If the sexual offense occurred on campus it must be reported to Sioux Falls Police for Clery Act purposes.
- If victim requests confidentiality, the basic information (date, general location, nature of offense) must still be reported, but the victim's identity need not be revealed.
- If the offense occurred off campus, there is no legal requirement to file a police report. However, the victim should be encouraged to file a report with local law enforcement.
- If the incident involves a student or employee, it must be reported to the Title IX & College Compliance Officer.
